

PRIVACY POLICY

This Privacy Policy outlines how Dropac collects, uses, and safeguards any information you provide when accessing mobile applications designed for both Customers and Driver Partners. It forms an electronic record under the Information Technology Act, 2000, along with its applicable Rules and amendments.

At Dropac Logistics Private Limited, the "Company," "we," "Dropac," or "us", protecting your privacy is our priority. This Privacy Policy explains the procedures we follow regarding the collection, usage, disclosure, and protection of your data when you use our website at <https://dropac.in/> or the mobile applications branded as Dropac and Dropac Driver App together. It applies to users, including customers and drivers. In this document, the terms "you" and "your" refer to users of the Dropac Apps, while "Services" denote any services provided by Dropac, either through the apps or via other means. This Policy forms part of, and should be read in conjunction with, the applicable Terms of Service and Driver Partner Terms and Conditions relevant to the use of Dropac's platform.

Dropac is dedicated to safeguarding your personal information. Any data we ask for that can personally identify you will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement. By using the Dropac Apps and related Services, you agree to the collection, handling, storage, and disclosure of your data as outlined in this Policy. If you disagree with any part of this Policy, please refrain from using the Dropac Apps or accessing our Services.

INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We may gather the following data:

Name and professional title.

Contact details such as email address.

Demographic details including postal code, address, phone number, login credentials, preferences, and interests.

When you use our Services, we may store data to handle your requests and pre-fill forms for future interactions, such as your phone number, address, email, billing information, and invoices.

Other details relevant to customer surveys or promotions.

Information about app installations, removals, and other apps on your device. If you register as a Driver Partner with Dropac, we may collect your location information, profile picture, government identification documents, and other KYC-related details. These could include vehicle documents like insurance, pollution certificate, bank account information, utility bills, registration certificate, driving license, and other papers related to the vehicle's fitness for providing services via the Dropac app. We may also collect call and SMS details, which can be shared with customers during service provision. We perform background checks and verify the identity of Driver Partners. This may involve collecting data such as driving history, criminal background (where applicable by law), and work authorization, which may be done through authorized third-party vendors.

If you are a Driver Partner, some features of the Dropac app may require access to other applications on your device to help prevent fraud against customers. If you opt into our referral program, we may access your contact list upon your consent to share specific numbers. These numbers will not be shared with third parties.

You can request to review any information you've provided, and Dropac will ensure that any personal data found to be inaccurate or incomplete is corrected as soon as possible. Dropac will not retain sensitive personal data or information longer than necessary for its intended lawful purposes.

HOW WE USE THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We gather this information to better understand your needs and enhance the services we provide. Specifically, we use the information for the following purposes:

Internal Record Management: Keeping accurate internal records for better service delivery.

Service Improvement: We may utilize the data to enhance our services and offerings.

Facilitating Service Usage: Allowing you to access and utilize the Dropac app's services, as well as fulfilling any contractual obligations between you and us.

Supporting Transactions: Enabling you to initiate and complete transactions on the Dropac app.

Account Management: Managing your account and improving your user experience with Dropac.

Payment Processing: Handling payment processes related to services you engage with through the Dropac app and ensuring associated support.

Customer Support: Addressing your feedback, reviews, and queries to provide superior customer service.

Service Notifications: Keeping you informed about important updates or changes to our services available on the Dropac app.

Tracking Services: Monitoring your order status, processing, and the delivery of services as applicable.

Consent-based Usage: Utilizing your information for any additional purposes with your explicit consent.

Occasionally, we may send promotional emails, SMS, or make calls about new products, special offers, or other information we believe might interest you, using the contact details you've shared with us. Additionally, we may contact you for market research purposes via email, SMS, calls, fax, or post. The information collected may also be used to personalize the website according to your preferences and interests.

Security

At Dropac, we prioritize the security of your information. To prevent unauthorized access or disclosure, we have implemented appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial safeguards in accordance with the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011 ("IT RSP Rules"). We ensure that the information we collect online is securely protected. We do not keep any information collected from you for longer than is necessary for our services or as mandated by applicable laws in India. You must maintain the confidentiality of your information and any other data obtained through the Dropac apps.

Disclosure

We may share certain personally identifiable information with third-party services, including but not limited to:

Information you provide, such as your name, email address, mobile number, and preferred language.

Data we collect as you access and utilize our services, including device information, location data, and network carrier. If you enable us, we collect precise or approximate location data from your mobile device while using the Dropac apps. This data is gathered from the moment you request a ride or delivery until it is completed and whenever the app is active in the foreground. We utilize this information to enhance your experience with our apps, optimize pick-up locations, enable safety features, and prevent or detect fraudulent activity. Additionally, we collect location data from Driver Partners and link it with their customers' accounts, even if the customer has not authorized location tracking. This allows us to provide services like receipt generation and customer support.

This information may be shared with third-party service providers under contracts to: Tailor the Dropac apps for an optimal user experience. Conduct behavioral analytics. Share information with our vendors, consultants, marketing partners, research firms, and other service providers or business partners, including payment processing entities, to support our services. We may also collaborate with academic partners for the purpose of conducting research.

If you are a Driver Partner with Dropac, we may share your name, phone number, and/or profile picture (if applicable) with other users to facilitate service delivery. Moreover, we may disclose information to governmental agencies, law enforcement, or other entities assisting us when required by law, in good faith compliance with any orders or processes, or to detect and prevent potential identity theft, fraud, abuse of services, and other illegal activities.

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

In accordance with Rule 3(1)(b) of the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Rules, 2021, you are prohibited from hosting, displaying, uploading, modifying, publishing, transmitting, storing, updating, or sharing any information that:

Belongs to someone else and for which you do not possess the rights.

Is defamatory, obscene, pornographic, pedophilic, invasive of another's privacy (including bodily privacy), insulting or harassing based on gender, libelous, racially or ethnically offensive, related to or promoting money laundering or gambling, or otherwise violates existing laws.

Is detrimental to children.

Infringes on any patent, trademark, copyright, or other proprietary rights. Contravenes any law currently in force.

Deceives or misleads recipients about the source of the message, or knowingly and intentionally disseminates information that is clearly false or misleading but may be perceived as factual.

Impersonates another individual.

Threatens the unity, integrity, defense, security, or sovereignty of India, promotes friendly relations with foreign nations, disrupts public order, incites commission of any cognizable offense, or obstructs investigation of any offense, or insults another nation.

Contains software viruses or any other computer code, file, or program intended to disrupt, destroy, or limit the functionality of any computer resources.

Is evidently false and written or published in any form with the intent to mislead or harass any person, entity, or agency for financial gain or to cause harm to any individual.

In the event of non-compliance with these rules, regulations, policies, or the terms of service, we reserve the right to immediately terminate user access or usage rights to the computer resources or the Dropac apps, remove non-compliant information, or take both actions as deemed appropriate.

WITHDRAWAL OR NON-PROVISION OF DATA

You have the right to choose not to provide the requested data or information. At any point while using our Services or otherwise, you may withdraw your prior consent given to Dropac by reaching out to us. Such withdrawal should be communicated in writing to the appropriate corporate body. However, in such instances, Dropac reserves the right to withhold any Services for which the information was requested. We will not disclose or share your personal information with third parties unless we have your consent or are mandated by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional materials about third parties that we believe may interest you, provided you have indicated your willingness to receive such communications. You may request details about the personal information we hold about you under the Information Technology (Reasonable Security Practices and Procedures and Sensitive Personal Data or Information) Rules, 2011. If you would like to obtain a copy of the information we hold about you, please contact us.

If you believe any information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible using the address above. We will promptly correct any information found to be inaccurate.
